Oh No, We're Talking About Hell!

What are some things you've learned about hell?

Read Revelation 20:1-15.

- 1. What are some common myths about hell?
 - a. You go there right after you die.
 - b. Only the devil goes.
 - c. It burns forever.
 - d. It's already burning now.
 - e. The devil is the king of hell.
 - f. God wants to see people suffer.
 - g. Purgatory is a mini-hell until you enter heaven.
 - h. Other.
- 2. Who was hell originally intended for?
 - a. Only the devil.
 - b. Everyone who sins.
 - c. The people whose names are not in the Book of Life.
 - d. The demons.
 - e. The beast.
 - f. The False Prophet.
 - g. The entire race of humanity.
 - h. Other.
- 3. Who are the people on the thrones?
 - a. Martyrs.
 - b. People waiting to be judged.
 - c. The judges.
 - d. Angels.
 - e. People whose name is in the Book of Life.
 - f. People who were resurrected in the first resurrection.
 - g. Those going to hell.
 - h. Other.

4.	What does the devil do after the thousand years?
	a.	Burn in hell for eternity.
	b.	Try to wage war against God.

c. Gets chained to a pit forever.

- d. Makes an enormous army of all who are evil.
- e. Roams the earth aimlessly.
- f. Receives his final judgment.
- g. Successfully overthrows God.
- h. Other.
- 5. Who is resurrected/judged in the second resurrection?
 - a. The evil people.
 - b. Fallen angels.
 - c. The devil.
 - d. Those who accepted the mark of the beast.
 - e. Those who waged war against the Holy City.
 - f. The Beast and False Prophet.
 - g. The entire race of humanity.
 - h. Other.
- 6. What blessing do those who are faithful receive?
 - a. They don't participate in judgment.
 - b. They will be priests of God.
 - c. They'll become judges.
 - d. They aren't part of the second resurrection.
 - e. They will reign with God for 1000 years.
 - f. They will decide who goes to hell.
 - g. They will sit on thrones.
 - h. Other.
- 7. Do you live in fear of hell or in expectance of heaven?
- 8. How can we help others to learn about hell in a way that doesn't bring fear?