  - G. Jesus enjoyed talking with strangers.
  - H. He saw it as a good launching pad to tell her about the water of life.
  - I. Other.

2. What might the woman have thought when she first talked with Jesus?
  - A. What is he doing here? I thought I'd be by myself.
  - B. I hate people who aren't like me.
  - C. I hate those who think they're better than me.
  - D. I wonder what he wants?
  - E. This guy is helpless.
  - F. This guy is very odd.
  - G. This guy is amazing.
  - H. This could be the Messiah.
  - I. Other.

3. What did Jesus and the woman cover when talking about religion?
  - A. My religion is better than yours.
  - B. No, my religion is better than yours.
  - C. My religion is older.
  - D. My religion has God.
  - E. Your current lifestyle.
  - F. Which should be a higher priority: service or worship?
  - G. Where should a person worship?
  - H. How should a person worship?
  - I. Other.

4. What do you say about your religion when talking with others?
  - A. I don't talk about religion.
  - B. I'm spiritual, not religious. (What does that mean?)
  - C. A person should choose their own religion; I'm not pushing mine.
  - D. You'd like what happens at my church.
  - E. You need to join my religion.
  - F. It's all about salvation.
  - G. It's all about serving others.
  - H. I'm not sure what I believe right now.
  - I. Other.

5. How did the woman convince the townspeople to follow her to Jesus?
  - A. This guy is so interesting!
  - B. There's a great magician at the well—check it out!
  - C. She guaranteed that it would be worth the walk.
  - D. She told them, "There's a guy at the well who needs your help."
  - E. Come see God!
