

LOVE IN MANY LANGUAGES

Instructions:

In Genesis 11, the people were scattered all over the world and while there once was one language and people, there are now many different languages with different cultures. Despite the hundreds of languages, one can always learn how to say “I love you.” and that’s what God tells us through His Scriptures, no matter what language we speak. How many translations of “I love you” can you find in this international wordsearch? Try researching on Google or Youtube how to pronounce one or two of them and teach a friend or family member!

Word Bank

I LOVE YOU (English) • ICH LIEBE DICH (German) • EK HET JOU LIEF (Afrikaans)
IK HOU VAN JOU (Dutch) • YA TEBYA LYUBLYU (Russian) • SARANG HEYO (Korean)
DOOSET DARAM (Farsi) • WO AI NI (Mandarin) • JE TAIME (French) • TI AMO (Italian)
TECHIHHILA (Sioux) • TE AMO (Spanish) • ANA BEHIBAK (Arabic)
NGOH OI NEIH (Cantonese) • IKH HOB DIKH (Yiddish)