"The Blood for My Pride!"

Can you share a personal story about your pride being checked?

Read Exodus 12:1-12.

- 1. After reading Exodus 12:1-12, how do you feel about Passover?
  - A. Boring.
  - B. Exciting.
  - C. Too much blood.
  - D. Adventurous.
  - E. Troubled.
  - F. Scared.
  - G. Animals have rights.
  - H. Worried.
  - I. Other.
- 2. What do you think is the meaning of the Passover story?
  - A. God can humble human pride.
  - B. God recognizes blood as payment for sin.
  - C. This is a sad time for the lambs and kids.
  - D. God can deliver His children at a moment's notice.
  - E. When we have endured much, God will show up.
  - F. Pharaoh had respect for God after his firstborn son died.
  - G. This is a very hard thing to grasp the meaning of.
  - H. Other.
- 3. What is God trying to share with Israel in Exodus 12:4?
  - A. Look out for your neighbor.
  - B. Make sure you have enough food for the party.
  - C. The Passover is a communal meal.
  - D. I want to save everyone who is willing to be saved.
  - E. God is just trying to keep Israeli hunger under control.
  - F. God is sharing that Passover is for everyone to taste some blood.
  - G. The path to salvation is bathed in blood.
  - H. Other.

- 4. What do you suppose Enoch and God discussed for 300 years?
  - A. How God created Enoch.
  - B. The science of the unfallen worlds.
  - C. What it takes to change a person's life.
  - D. What made Enoch better than all the other people on earth.
  - E. The details of a covenant relationship with God.
  - F. The only discussion was about Enoch's communion with God.
  - G. God gave Enoch His law to place on his forehead and in his hands.
  - H. Other.
- 5. Why do you think God wanted a male lamb or a male kid at Passover?
  - A. God hated the old sheep and goats.
  - B. God wanted males to be dominant.
  - C. He wanted to show that the Savior of the world would be a male.
  - D. He just did it for no specific reason.
  - E. There is no significance here.
  - F. Lambs and goats are humble, so smaller lambs and goats are better.
  - G. Finding male lambs and kids was easier in those days.
  - H. Other.
- 6. Why did God want them to eat the meal in haste (Exodus12:11)?
  - A. Roast lambs and goats were just so good.
  - B. They were about to leave Egypt and didn't have time to spare.
  - C. They were to be on watch for the death angel.
  - D. Eating unleavened bread and goat/lamb meat was only symbolic.
  - E. God wanted them to eat small pieces just like the communion service.
  - F. He wanted them to hurry because the Egyptians were coming.
  - G. He was giving them practice for the time when Jesus comes quickly.
  - H. Other.
- 7. What is your attitude towards God; is it like Pharaoh's?
- 8. Is there anything in your life that you need to sacrifice right now?